

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Chase Trail

Alaska

Chase Trail

Alaska

Though close to the town of Talkeetna, the Chase Trail leads into the tamest edges of the Alaskan bush. The first five miles of this 14-mile

The community of Chase, for which the trail is named, originated in 1922 as a railroad station at Mile 236.2 of the Alaska Railroad. Today, only a few hardy residents remain, living self-sufficient lives along the banks of the nearby Susitna River.

Other areas have blossomed too. Nodwell, just off the Chase Trail past mile 5, has grown into a small community and once even boasted a bar. Clear Creek, at the end of the trail, is known for its great fishing. Locals recommend the trail to tourists, especially those who want to go beyond Talkeetna's main drag of cafés and shops.

Though close to the town of Talkeetna, the Chase Trail leads into the tamest edges of the Alaskan bush. The first five miles of this 14-mile trail—mostly flat and gravel—follow the Alaska Railroad. Families and those just visiting for the day should love it. Occasionally, a train passes, bringing a roar to an otherwise peaceful landscape. About 5 miles outside of Talkeetna, the trail leaves the tracks and enters a thick spruce–birch forest.

The land adjacent to the trail is private property, so please, no trespassing. Also, be aware that dangerous wildlife (brown bears and moose in particular) do make an appearance from time to time. Be alert and keep your distance. Never run from a bear or moose. Instead, back away slowly and give them their space.

Chase Trail

Alaska

States: Alaska

Counties: Matanuska-Susitna

Length: 14 miles

Trail end points: Talkeetna nr. the airport to Clear Creek

Trail surfaces: Dirt, Gravel

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Fishing, Mountain
Biking, Snowmobiling, Walking, Cross Country
Skiing

Parking & Trail Access

The trailhead is in the northwest corner of the Alaska Railroad parking lot in Talkeetna.

Chase Trail

Alaska

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com