

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Katy Trail
(Dallas)
Texas

Katy Trail (Dallas) Texas

The Katy Trail in Dallas is a premier urban trail, linking the business district with recreational opportunities, shopping, and Reverchon Park.

The Katy Trail in Dallas is a premier urban trail, linking the business district with recreational opportunities, shopping, and residential neighborhoods. The corridor is the perfect non-motorized route for families to commute between home and work or school, as well as to recreation and entertainment venues.

In addition to its paved surface, the 3.5-mile route includes an adjacent soft-surface track for runners and walkers. The pathway runs between Dallas' West End and the AA Center arena, traversing the city's urban core past Knox Street, Southern Methodist University, and the Mockingbird DART Station.

Along its route, the Katy Trail weaves through the northern end of Dallas past Glencoe, Turtle Creek and

Katy Trail (Dallas)

Texas

States: Texas

Counties: Dallas

Length: 4.4 miles

Trail end points: Lyte Street at AA Center arena to Ridgewood Trail at Mockingbird Lane bridge

Trail surfaces: Concrete

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

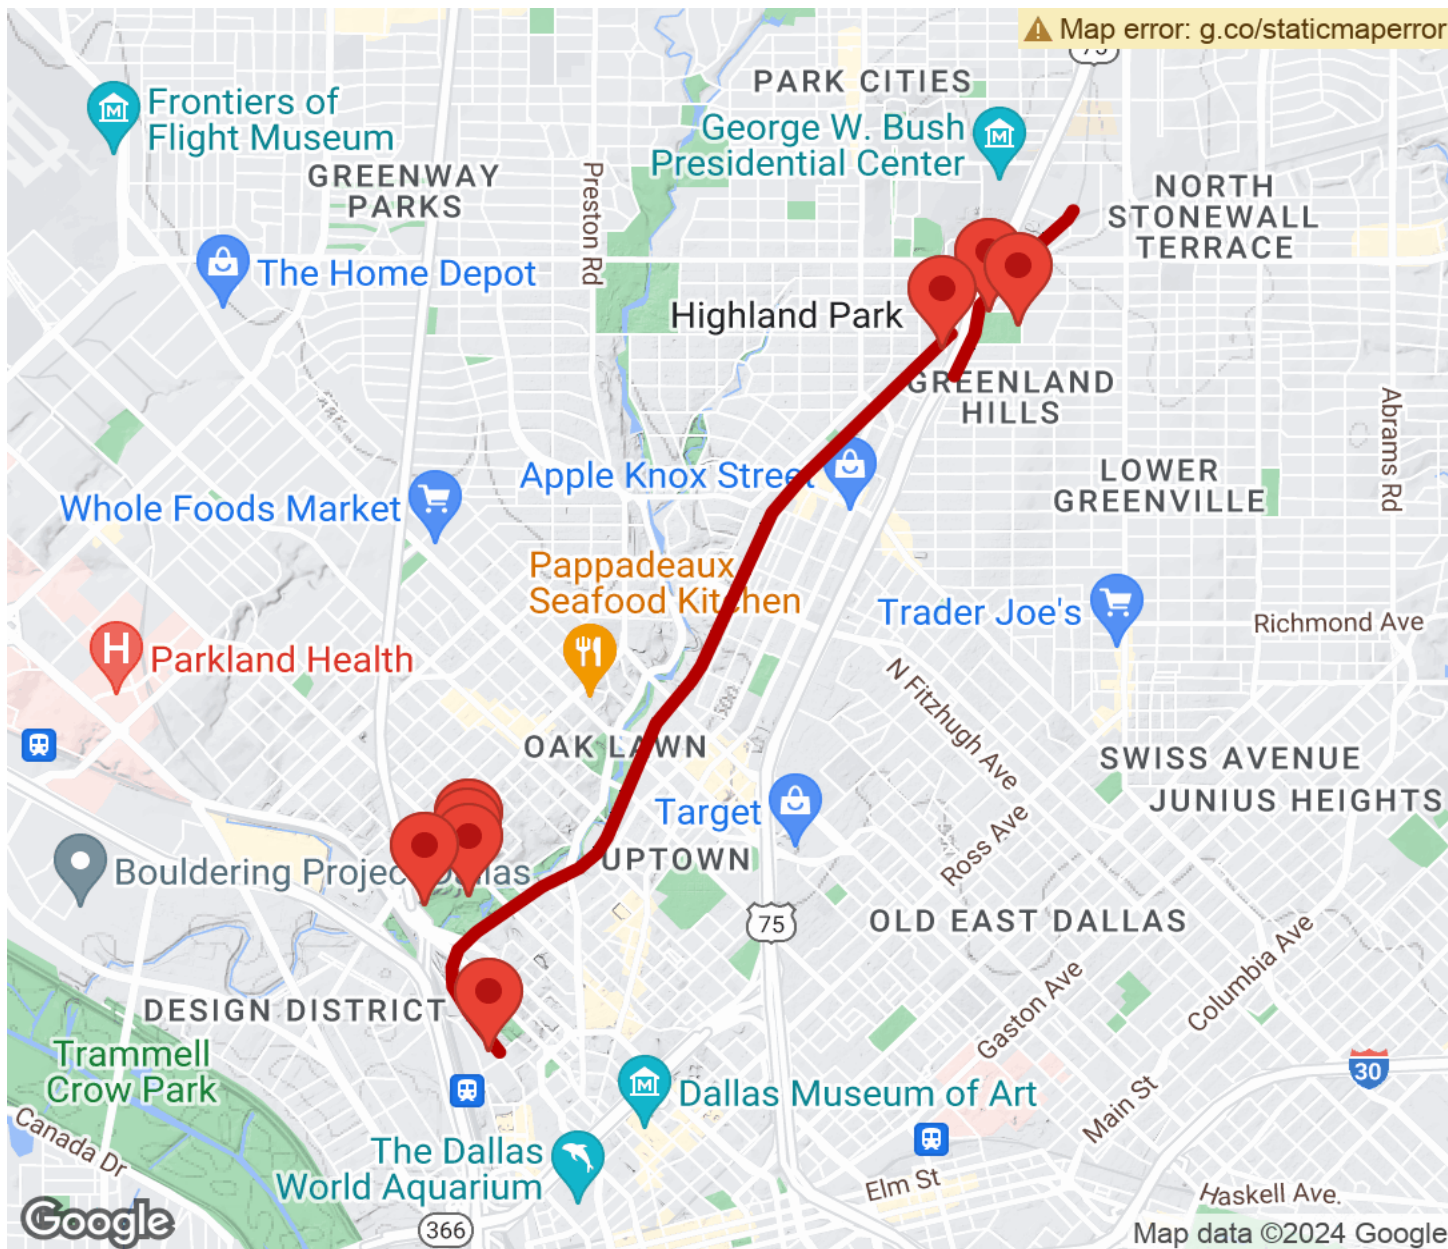

Parking is available along Airline Rd. near the northern trailhead, at Reverchon Park, 3505 Maple Ave and at the southern trailhead at 2620 Katy Trail.

See TrailLink Map for more detailed information.

Katy Trail (Dallas)

Texas

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com