

2025

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Wolf River
State Trail
Wisconsin

Wolf River State Trail

Wisconsin

The Wolf River State Trail spans 33 miles along the former Wisconsin Central railroad corridor from Crandon in Forest

The Wolf River State Trail spans 33 miles along the former Wisconsin Central railroad corridor from Crandon in Forest County to the village of White Lake in Langlade County (not far from the Menominee County border).

The entire length of the trail is adjacent to the Nicolet National Forest, offering additional opportunities for hiking, mountain biking, and cross-country skiing. Camping, hunting, and fishing areas can also be found within the sprawling wilderness.

ATV riders can use the northern half of the Wolf River State Trail in Forest County. In Langlade County, ATVs are only permitted at the southern tip between the communities of Langlade and White Lake.

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com

Wolf River State Trail

Wisconsin

States: Wisconsin

Counties: Forest, Langlade

Length: 33.4 miles

Trail end points: SR 32 (Crandon) to Church Street (White Lake)

Trail surfaces: Ballast, Crushed Stone

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: ATV, Fishing, Mountain Biking, Snowmobiling, Walking, Cross Country Skiing

Parking & Trail Access

On the northern end of the trail, parking can be found at Crandon's City Beach (off E. Lakeview Street) on the northeastern shore of Metonga Lake.

At the southern end of the trail, parking is available in downtown White Lake along Highway M/Lake Street near the intersection with Maple Street.

