Trail History

The rail trail, which was designated as a National Recreation Trail in 2018, follows the route of the old Dahlgren Branch Line from the Dahlgren Naval Surface Warfare Center west toward Fredericksburg. The pathway is also part of the Potomac Heritage National Scenic Trail, which extends from the Chesapeake Bay to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The trail opened in 2006 as a privately owned recreational facility accessible by permit.

The Dahlgren Railroad Heritage Trail (DRHT) traverses 16.5 miles of scenic forested landscape abounding with wildlife in Virginia's Northern Neck.

The trail is accessible by permit, which can be completed for free and online at the Friends of the DRHT website.

About the Route

Although the trail leaves off in the west just outside of Fredericksburg, nearly the entirety of the trail is encompassed by rural scenery. The trail route passes between rural county roads and forested tree cover. The eastern end of the trail is located just outside of Dahlgren, known for its military base. The DRHT can
