Bonita Reservoir Trail

Mississippi

Located on the outskirts of Meridian, the Bonita Reservoir Trail is a smooth and flat paved trail that loops around the man-made lake

Located on the outskirts of Meridian, the Bonita Reservoir Trail is a smooth and flat paved trail that loops around the man-made lake within the city's Bonita Lakes Park. The park is quite popular with locals looking for fishing, horseback riding, and picnic outings, and the trail offers a great, accessible way to experience some of the park's lovely natural setting.

The paved trail runs for just over a mile in total, while unpaved hiking and equestrian trails offer an additional host of mileage within the wooded lands to the southwest. Providing a nice accompaniment for a family outing or a pleasant place to get in a jog or walk, the Bonita Reservoir Trail is a true recreation asset for the Meridian area.
