A 0.25-mile spur connects the Stones River National Battlefield, Artillery Monument, Fortress Rosecrans, Redoubt Brannan, and Cannonsburgh Village, with historic wayside signs and exhibits.

South of the Southridge Trailhead, at 104 Player Dr, the greenway uses sections of road to guide users south of Murfreesboro to Barfield Crescent Park which features 7 miles of hiking trails, campsites, a disc golf course, and a large baseball/softball complex.

The Murfreesboro's Stones River Trail comprises 8.5 miles of linear park trails in the Stones River and Lytle Creek areas. The asphalt trails are 12 feet wide and are paved to allow walking, jogging, rollerblading, and bicycling.

About the Route

There are frequent trailheads and parks along the route including the Murfreesboro Bark Park, Cason Trail Bark Park, Barfield Crescent Park, and Fortress Rosecrans. The General Bragg trailhead has one picnic shelter with four tables and a playground. A recent extension takes the trail south to Salem Pike/SR 99, and parking is available at the end of Cason Trail Road.
