The Randolph Trail system covers 16 miles of pathways through five parks, the Clyde Potts Reservoir watershed and 2,000 acres of pristine open space. The trails link schools and neighborhoods and also connect to Patriots' Path at Combs Hollow and Old Brookside.

The trails are open from dawn to dusk only, and horses are not permitted. Be aware that there are some pretty hilly segments of trail, and though the trail surface is primarily stone dust, it also has some asphalt and gravel segments.
