Both the Hay Creek and Pebble Creek Loop are significant and scenic loops in the Bismarck Trail System.

These two "loops" are connected but the total mileage of trails in the northeast corner of Bismarck is around 7 miles. The Pebble Creek Loop runs first in the north along Hay Creek and then loops through the Pebble Creek Golf Course and around the Scheels Baseball Complex.

Hay Creek loop runs in a circle around residential neighborhoods and south towards Sleepy Hollow Park, which features a outdoor ampitheatre, horseshoes and a poetry box. There is an additional southern section that runs south along Hay Creek until reaching E Rosser Ave.
