Overview

The Kensington Metropark Trail forms a paved loop around Kent Lake in western Oakland County.

About the Route

Kensington Metropark, which features 4,481 acres of hilly terrain around the large lake, is one of the most popular parks in Michigan, and the trail accommodates inline skaters, runners, walkers and cyclists.

The scenic area also offers a number of equestrian and hiking trails that branch off from the main paved loop. Due to its scenery and recreational amenities, the area is a destination for many users of the three other paved trails
