Wayne County Metroparks Trail

Michigan

You won't find this trail's name on the ground: the continuous stretch is actually made up of the scenic trails within Oakwoods journey to trek north into Novi.

All three of the parks are beautiful places to relax or play, but they each have amenities that make them unique. In the north, Lower Huron Metropark offers a golf course and aquatic center. Willow Metropark too features a golf course, but a skatepark and disc golf course are included as well. In the south, Oakwoods Metropark contains hiking trails through mature woodlands, a butterfly trail to view Monarchs and a nature center at the Wayne County Metroparks Trail's southern endpoint.

You won't find this trail's name on the ground: the continuous stretch is actually made up of the scenic trails within Oakwoods Metropark, Willow Metropark and Lower Huron Metropark, as well as a connector between the latter two. The route directly links the three popular parks in the regional Huron-Clinton Metroparks system, allowing trail users to travel uninterrupted for a 30-mile round trip.

The trail loosely follows the Huron River, at times offering views of the water and the wildlife that call it home. The quiet route is interrupted by reminders of the surrounding suburban environment infrequently, such as where it passes under loud Interstate 275. The trail conveniently connects to the I-275 Metro Trail on the west side of the highway, allowing those looking for a longer
