Morgana Run Trail

Ohio

The Morgana Run Trail runs on a former Wheeling and Lake Erie Railway corridor through Cleveland's historic Slavic Village

Stanislaus Elementary and Mound Elementary School.

The Morgana Run Trail runs on a former Wheeling and Lake Erie Railway corridor through Cleveland's historic Slavic Village neighborhood. The paved rail-trail connects residents to Cleveland Metroparks' Garfield Park Reservation to the south, where trail users can view Mill Creek Falls, Cuyahoga County's largest waterfall. (Be aware that the link to Garfield Park includes a short stretch of travel on busy Broadway Ave.) At the trail's northern end, Washington Park and its new golf course is just a short trip away.

The trail also provides a safe route to schools and recreational facilities for the community's youth, as it passes directly by South High School, Stella Walsh Recreation Center, Union Elementary, the Boys & Girls Club, Cleveland Central Catholic High School, St.
