

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Anacostia
Tributary
Trail System
Maryland

Anacostia Tributary Trail System

Maryland

The 29.9-mile Anacostia Tributary Trail System includes a number of trails linked together and managed by the National Park Service.

The 29.9-mile Anacostia Tributary Trail System includes a number of trails linked together and managed by the National Park Service.

About the Route

This trail system carries trail users throughout a variety of towns and neighborhoods in Prince George and Montgomery counties. The trails include: the Anacostia River Trail, the Northwest Branch Trail, the Northeast Branch Trail, the Indian Creek Trail, the Paint Branch Trail, the Lake Artemesia Trail, and the Sligo Creek Trail.

Anacostia Tributary Trail System

Maryland

States: Maryland

Counties: Montgomery, Prince Georges

Length: 29.9 miles

Trail end points: Wheaton-Glenmont, Franklin Knolls, and Hollywood to Colmar Manor Community Park (Colmar Manor)

Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

Parking & Trail Access

The Anacostia Tributary Trail System runs between Colmar Manor Community Park and Wheaton-Glenmont, Franklin Knolls, and Hollywood.

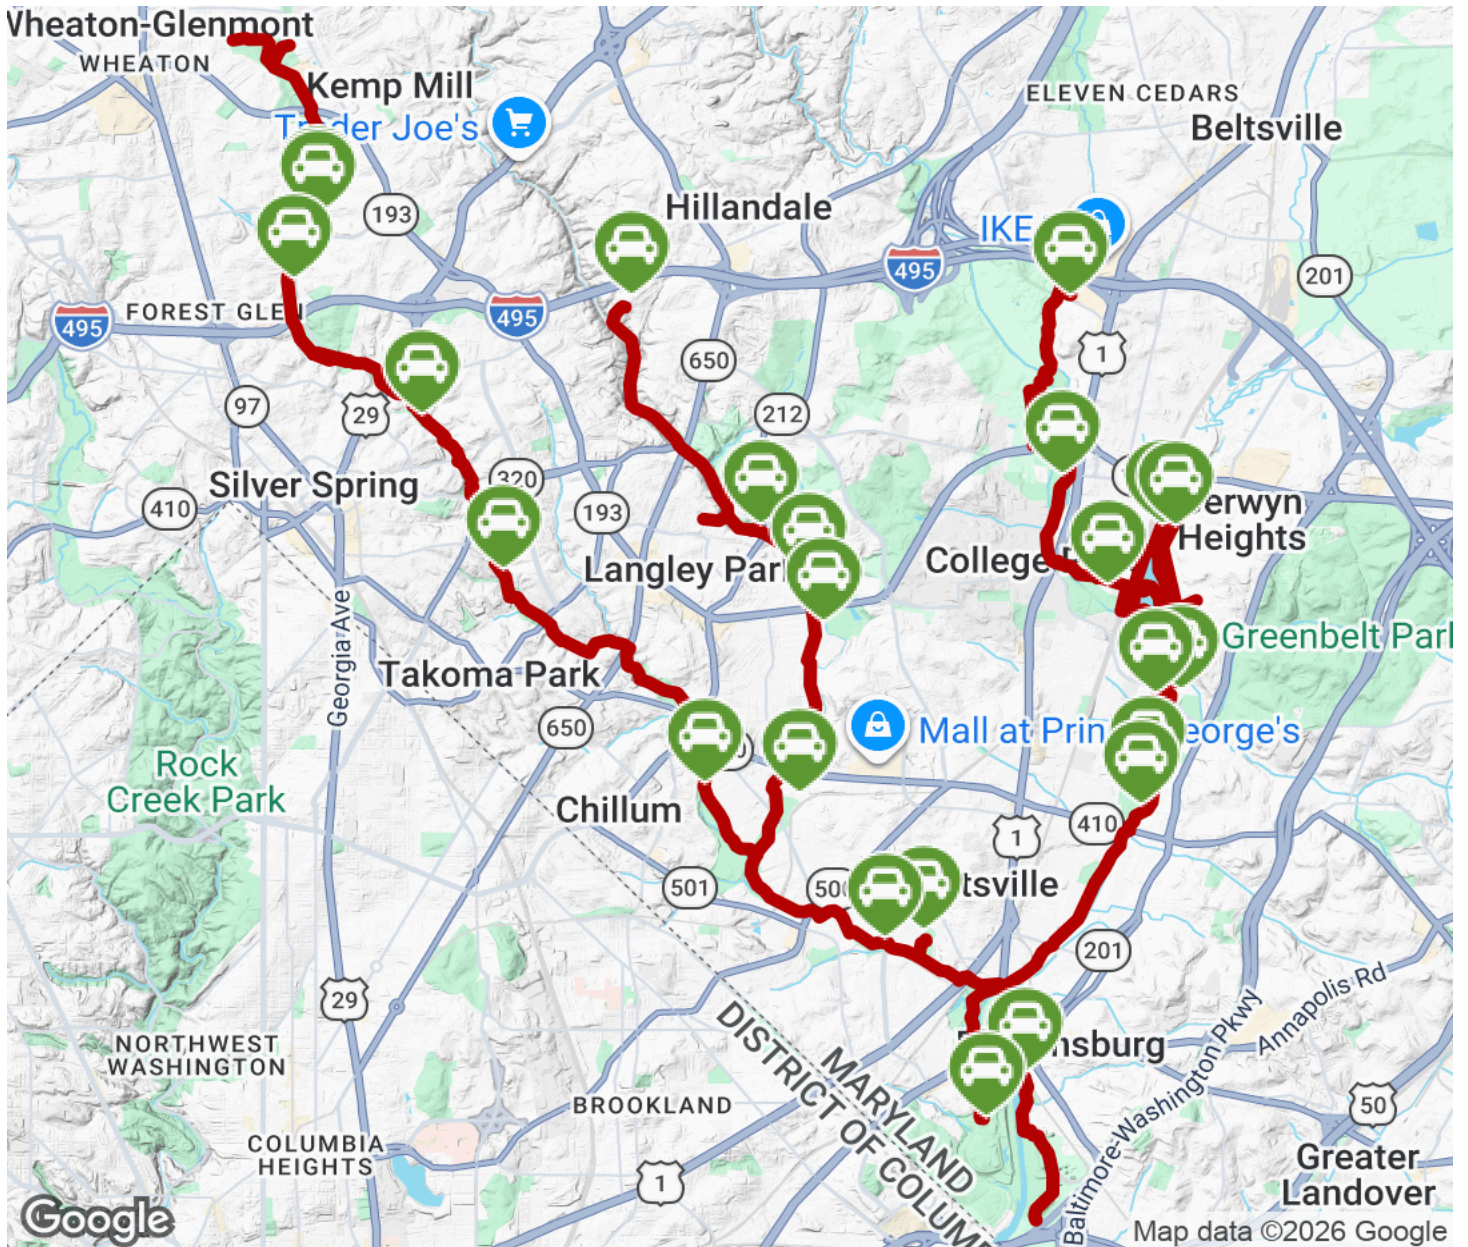

Parking is available at a number of locations, including:

Please see TrailLink Map for all parking options and detailed directions.

Anacostia Tributary Trail System

Maryland

- Trailhead
- Restroom
- Parking
- Water Fountain
- Tunnel