Shoreline Bike Path

California

The Shoreline Bike Path is a scenic 4.3-mile multipurpose trail that runs between the tip of the breakwater opposite Island Grissom at islands and ships anchored in the outer harbor mix with more traditionally beautiful scenes of Palos Verdes and the mouth of the San Gabriel River in the distance.

The Shoreline Bike Path is a scenic 4.3-mile multipurpose trail that runs between the tip of the breakwater opposite Island Grissom at the Long Beach Shoreline Marina and Long Beach's Belmont Shore neighborhood.

About the Route

Running along a white sand beach for nearly its entire journey, the trail provides direct access to the Pacific Ocean and the city's popular Belmont Veterans Memorial Pier.

The path, which is 17 feet wide, features separate 6-foot-wide bike lanes and a 5-foot-wide pedestrian lane, offering ample room for trail users of all types. The views from the trail are spectacular: cranes of the container port, oil
