The Santa Fe Trail is a part of the City of Dallas trails system. This 12-foot-wide, 4.3-mile concrete surface trail connects White Rock Lake to Deep Ellum, Fair Park, and Downtown Dallas.

About the Route

Multiple parks throughout Lower East Dallas lie on the trail route, making the short trail a scenic journey. The parks along the route are White Rock Lake Park, Willis C. Winters Park, and Old East Dallas Works Yard Park.

At the southern end of the trail, a perpendicular section of trail runs parallel to an active railroad line.
