The Lebanon Countryside YMCA Trail offers 8 miles of paved pathway winding through Lebanon, from downtown to a connection to the 78-mile Little Miami Scenic Trail. The trail begins in the north near the Lebanon Railroad Station, which is used by the LM&M Railroad for scenic train rides through rural Warren County. As the trail continues south, the scenery changes dramatically, varying from urban downtown to suburban neighborhoods to rural countryside.

The trail features several hills that may prove challenging to some trail users. Cyclists should keep their speed in check when descending hills. Trail users should also note that a small portion of the trail directly south of downtown Lebanon is actually shared road and sidewalk along Deerfield Road.
