

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Pleasant Run Trail

Indiana

Pleasant Run Trail

Indiana

The Pleasant Run Trail travels along both the creek and road of the same name as it courses through eastern Indianapolis, although

The Pleasant Run Trail travels along both the creek and road of the same name as it courses through eastern Indianapolis, although the trail is located on sidewalks in certain areas. In the north, the trail begins at Ellenberger Park, where it makes a loop around the manicured grounds. Additional park loops can be found midway along the trail at Christian Park and at its southern endpoint in Garfield Park.

The Pleasant Run Trail connects directly to the Indianapolis Cultural Trail at Shelby Street.

Pleasant Run Trail

Indiana

States: Indiana

Counties: Marion

Length: 6.9miles

Trail end points: Ellenberger Park at East St. Clair St. and N. Ritter Ave. to Garfield Park at Pleasant Run Pkwy. and Conservatory Dr.

Trail surfaces: Asphalt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike,Inline

Skating, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

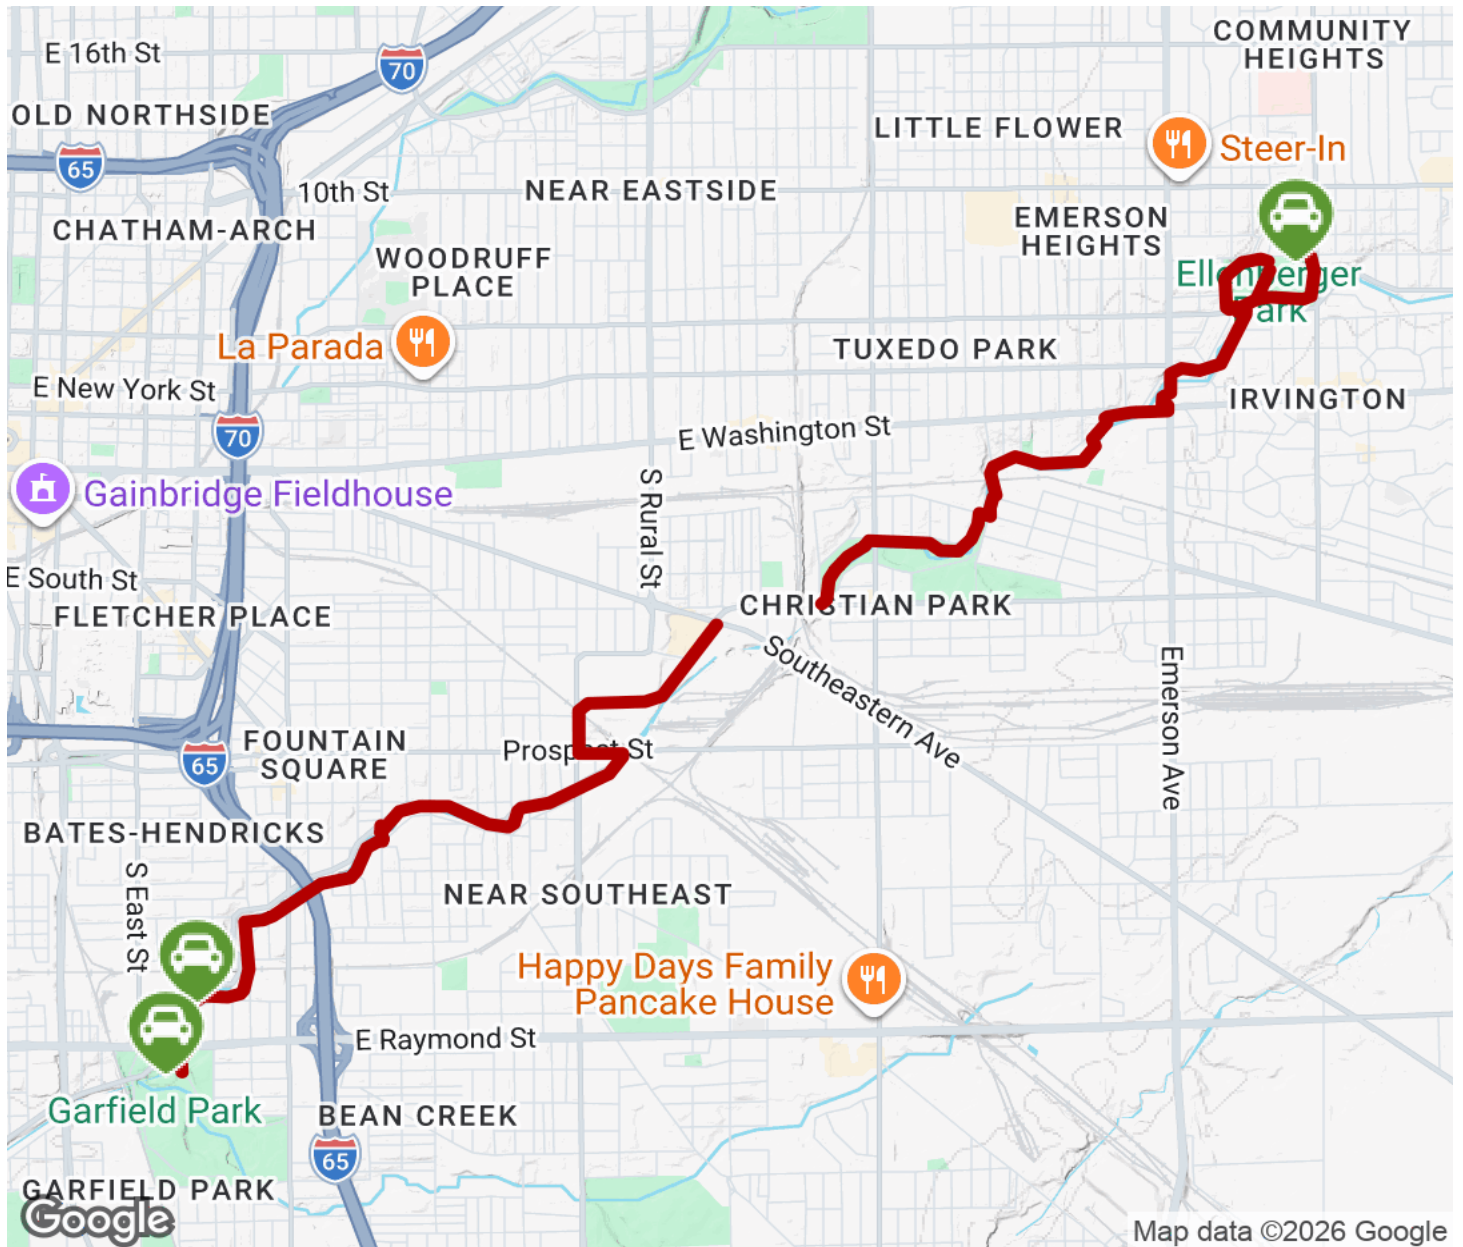

Parking & Trail Access

Parking for the Pleasant Run Trail can be found at Ellenberger Park on East St. Clair Street; at Christian Park on Kingbridge Street off English Avenue; and at Garfield Park on Conservatory Drive between Shelby Street and Pleasant Run Parkway.

Pleasant Run Trail

Indiana

- Trailhead
- Restroom
- Parking
- Water Fountain
- Tunnel