

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

John Dietrich
Bikeway
Nebraska

John Dietrich Bikeway

Nebraska

The John Dietrich Bikeway—also known as the John Dietrich Trail or simply the Dietrich Trail—winds through urban Lincoln for

The John Dietrich Bikeway—also known as the John Dietrich Trail or simply the Dietrich Trail—winds through urban Lincoln for more than 3 miles. Along its route, the trail skirts the edge of a number of residential properties and three neighborhood parks (Lintel, Pentzer and Upco). At Fleming Fields, enjoy a game of baseball, softball or soccer.

First-time users of the John Dietrich Bikeway may want to study the TrailLink map before beginning a trip, as the trail's winding route could lead some astray at intersections. At the trail's western end, connect directly with the Antelope Valley Trail to access points north and south. On the trail's opposite end, take the Murdock Trail east to the edge of Lincoln.

John Dietrich Bikeway

Nebraska

States: Nebraska

Counties: Lancaster

Length: 3.6miles

Trail end points: N. 17th St., west of Holdrege St. to N. 48th St. and Fremont St.

Trail surfaces: Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Inline

Skating, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

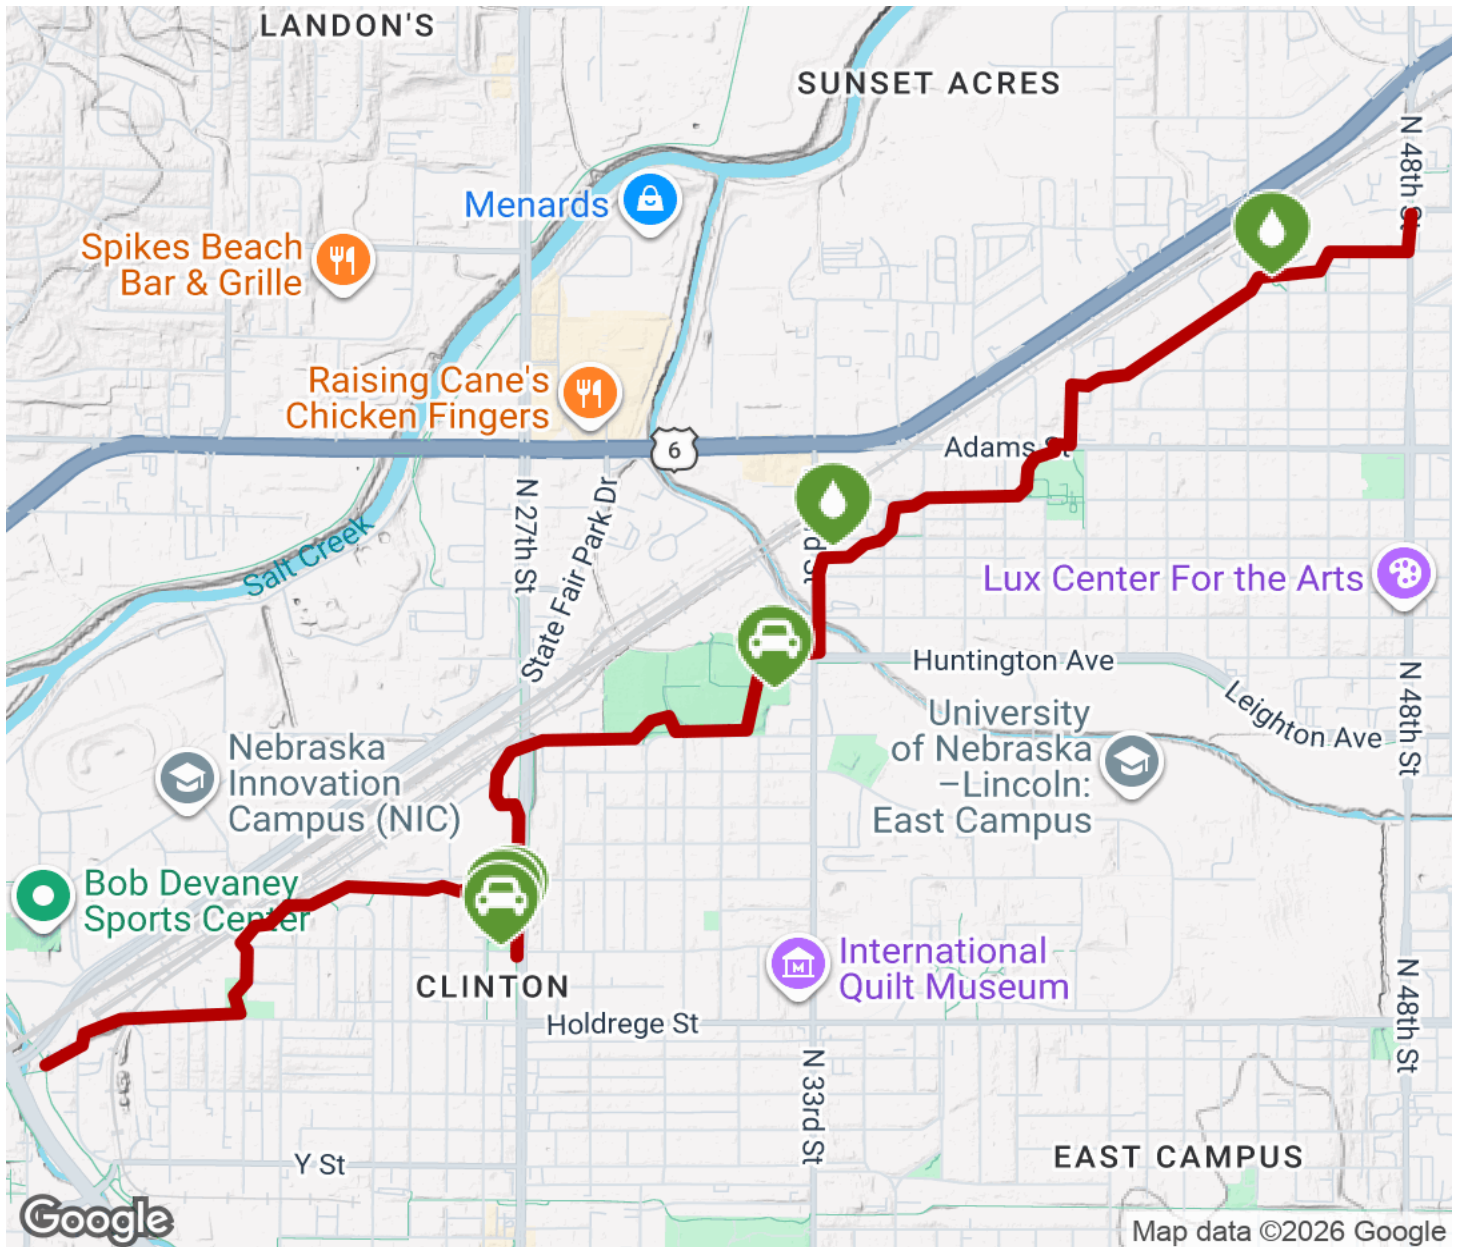

Parking & Trail Access

Parking for the John Dietrich Bikeway can be found in Pentzer Park at the intersection of N. 26th Street and Potter Street, at Fleming Fields at the western end of Huntington Avenue or in Upco Park at the intersection of N. 39th Street and Cleveland Avenue.

John Dietrich Bikeway

Nebraska

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com