The Virgin River North Trail follows the Virgin River valley through the city of St. George in the southwest corner of Utah. The trail provides striking views of the river as well as connections to nearby residences, public facilities, and commercial centers.

In its 8 mile path, it passes the Sullivan Virgin River Soccer Park, does a loop around Springs Park and Pond, Larkspur and Bloomington Hills Park. It ends just south of St. George in Bloomington at Man O War Boulevard, where it connects with the Virgin River South Trail, which travels another 6 miles south of St. George.
