Overview

The Virgin River North Trail runs for 13 miles through St. George along the Virgin River. The paved path provides striking river views and connections to nearby residences, public facilities, and commercial centers.

About the Route

The northern endpoint of the Virgin River North Trail sits just south of East Smith Creek Drive. The trail follows the river briefly before it reaches the first spur of the trail. The short spur heads north through Cottonwood Wash and into Canyon Park, where parking is available. Heading south after the spur, the Virgin River North Trail passes by Sullivan Virgin River Soccer Park, where trail users can access park amenities. As it heads south, the trail continues to pass more parks and residential neighborhoods. There are multiple options available for food and shopping along the trail. The trail's southern endpoint is in Bloomington on Man O War Road.
