The Virginia Beach Boardwalk is among one of the most popular trails in the Virginia Beach area. Throughout the summer the boardwalk hums with pedestrians taking in the shops and beach along this scenic, ocean-front trail. A paved, separated lane paralleling the boardwalk is provided for bicyclists.

The trail runs between 40th Street on the north and Rudee Inlet on the south with access to the Atlantic Ocean the whole way. You'll find plenty of things to see and do, so take your time and enjoy the scene.
