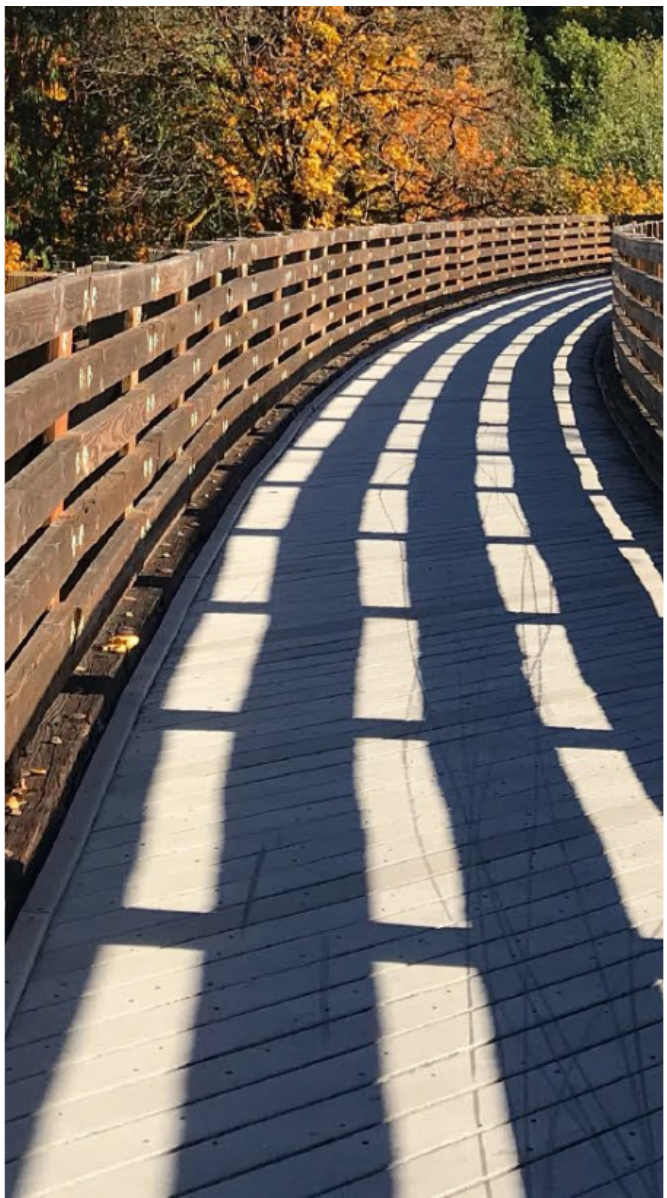
TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides



70th Street Trail

Nebraska

70th Street Trail

Nebraska

The 70th Street Trail follows its namesake thoroughfare for just over two miles, providing a convenient, north-south route through

The 70th Street Trail follows its namesake thoroughfare for just over two miles, providing a convenient, north-south route through residential Lincoln. Along the way, trail-goers will pass Holmes Lake Park, a popular spot for boating, fishing, and picnicking. For an extended journey, the trail provides access points to Old Cheney Road Trail, Billy Wolff Trail and Antelope Creek Trail.

70th Street Trail

Nebraska

States: Nebraska
Counties: Lancaster
Length: 2.3miles
Trail end points: Old Post Rd. (Lincoln) to Old Cheney Rd. (Lincoln)
Trail surfaces: Concrete
Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT
Trail activities: Bike,Inline Skating,Walking,Wheelchair Accessible

Parking & Trail Access

The 70th Street Trail runs between Old Post Rd. (Lincoln) and Old Cheney Rd. (Lincoln).

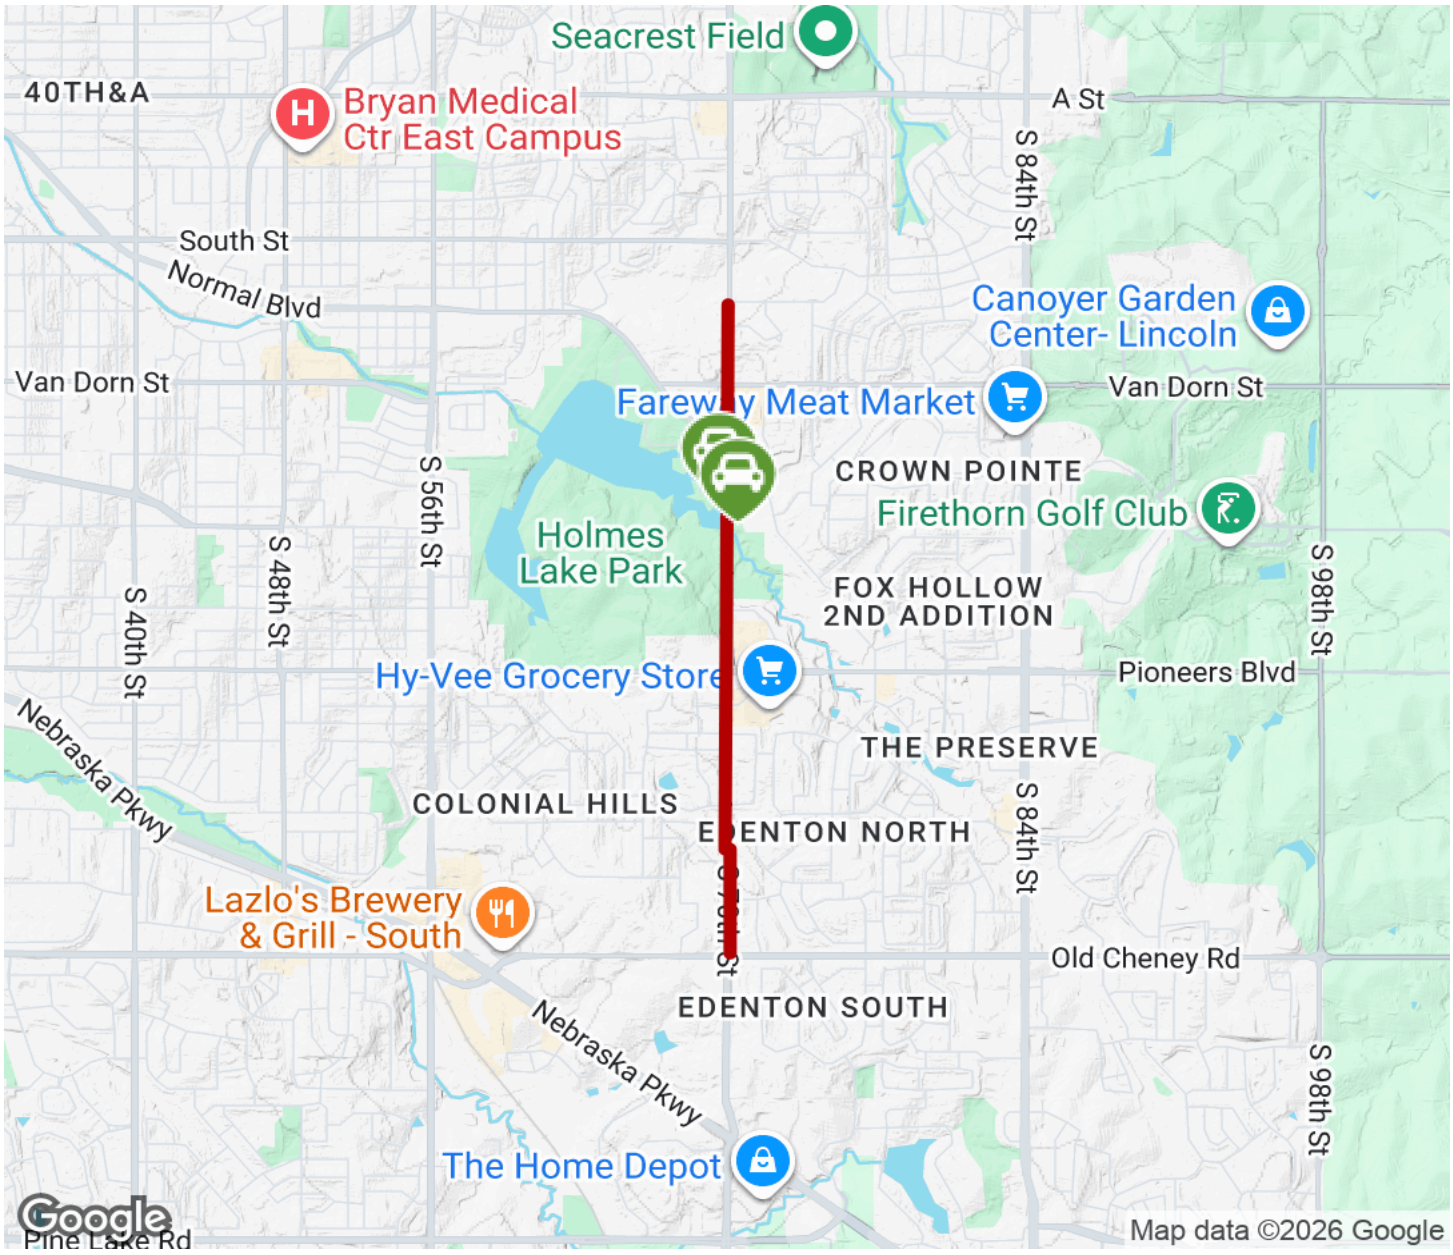
Parking is available at:

- Holmes Lake Park (Lincoln)

Please see TrailLink Map for detailed directions.

70th Street Trail

Nebraska



Trailhead Restroom Parking Water Fountain Tunnel