Devil's River State Trail

Wisconsin

The Devil's River State Trail stretches 14.6 miles, connecting the towns of Denmark, Maribel, Francis Creek, and Kossuth in eastern

R. At the trailhead in Denmark, trail users can find a park shelter with a kitchen and bathrooms plus ample parking for vehicles with snowmobile trailers.

The Devil's River State Trail stretches 14.6 miles, connecting the towns of Denmark, Maribel, Francis Creek, and Kossuth in eastern Wisconsin. The trail is a scenic jaunt through farmland, woodland, and wetland with dramatic views from two railroad trestles over river crossings.

About the Route

In winter, the trail is popular for snowmobiling, cross-country skiing (although it is not groomed) and snowshoeing. In summer, walk, jog, or bike. Watch for wildlife, including plentiful species of birds.

Maribel Caves County Park is located just off the trail, and Devil's River Camper Park is also nearby on County Road
