Boulder Creek Path

Colorado

Closely following its scenic namesake waterway for most of its journey, the popular Boulder Creek Path runs east from Boulder

Closely following its scenic namesake waterway for most of its journey, the popular Boulder Creek Path runs east from Boulder Canyon to the outskirts of the Valmont Reservoir.

About the Route

The trail's western end is dirt and gravel, but becomes paved as the trail enters the city and travels through downtown Boulder, community parks and the University of Colorado campus.

Connections

Trail connections can be made to the Goose Creek Greenway near the Boulder Creek Path's eastern end.
