

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Lake Link Trail
Colorado

Lake Link Trail

Colorado

As its name implies, the Lake Link Trail connects many of the region's lakes, offering picturesque views of the water and

As its name implies, the Lake Link Trail connects many of the region's lakes, offering picturesque views of the water and surrounding mountains. The trail begins in Hunter Douglas Business Park and ends near McKay Lake, a tranquil oasis in one of Denver's major suburbs. The path follows the southern borders of the Carolyn Holmberg Preserve and Ruth Roberts Park as it makes its way east, and traverses some of Broomfield's most desirable neighborhoods.

Lake Link Trail

Colorado

States: Colorado

Counties: Boulder, Broomfield

Length: 8.6 miles

Trail end points: Midway Blvd. to Zuni St. and Quail Creek Dr.

Trail surfaces: Concrete, Dirt

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike, Fishing, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

Parking & Trail Access

A large parking lot is available in Hunter Douglas Business Park, at the trail's western tip. Parking is also available near Stearns Lake in the Carolyn Holmberg Preserve.

Lake Link Trail

Colorado

- Trailhead
- Restroom
- Parking
- Water Fountain
- Tunnel