The Embudo Recreation Trail provides a short route to the beautiful Sandia Mountains through eastern Albuquerque neighborhoods

The Embudo Recreation Trail provides a short route to the beautiful Sandia Mountains through eastern Albuquerque neighborhoods from Morris Street to Tramway Boulevard. Although the Embudo Recreation Trail is on the shorter side, it connects to not just one, but two trails. On the west end of the Embudo Recreation Trail it connects to the Paseo de las Montanas Trail, which is 5 miles and connects to neighborhoods and shopping centers. On the east end of the Embudo Recreation Trail, it connects to the 8.5 mile Tramway Recreation Trail and offers wonderful views of the Sandia Mountains.
