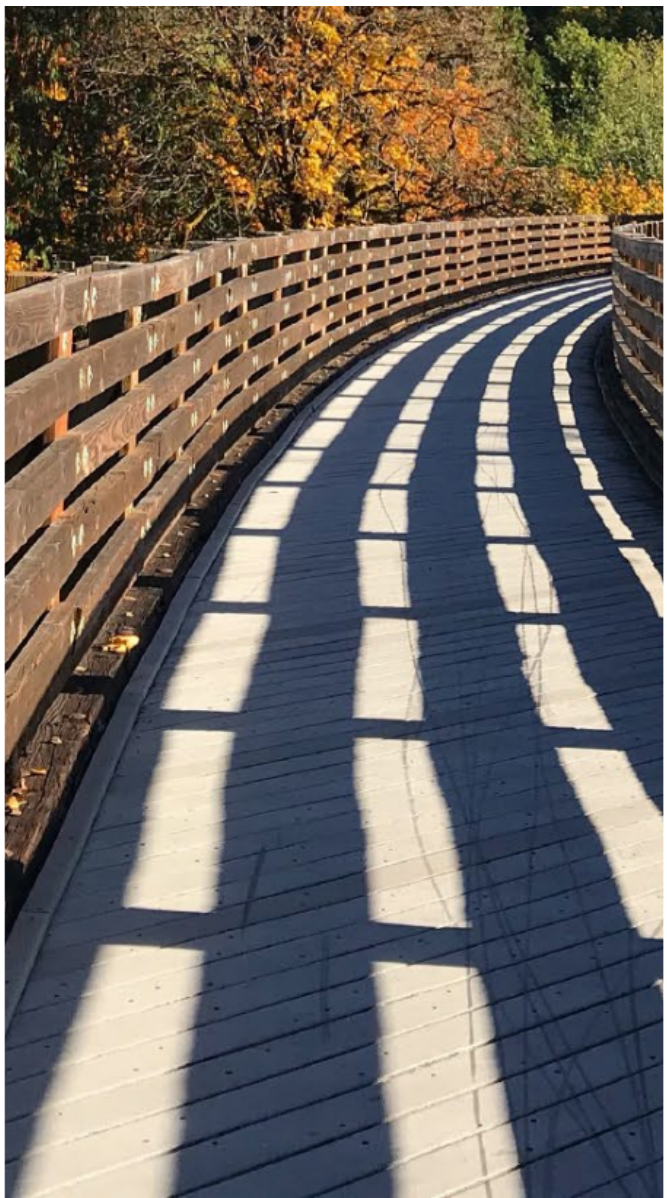
TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

2025

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides



Burnt Bridge Creek Trail

Washington

Burnt Bridge Creek Trail

Washington

The scenic 8.4-mile Burnt Bridge Creek Trail meanders through Vancouver, Washington, along the creek from Stewart Glen on the

The scenic 8.4-mile Burnt Bridge Creek Trail meanders through Vancouver, Washington, along the creek from Stewart Glen on the shores of Vancouver Lake to Meadowbrook Marsh.

About the Route

Along the way, the trail passes through forests, grasslands, and city neighborhoods, as well as Leverich Park and Arnold Park. Travelers should take note that the trail veers onto sidewalks in a few well-marked places.

Burnt Bridge Creek Trail

Washington

States: Washington
Counties: Clark
Length: 8.4miles
Trail end points: NW Lakeshore Ave. (Vancouver) to Meadowbrook Marsh Park (Vancouver)
Trail surfaces: Asphalt,Concrete
Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT
Trail activities: Bike,Inline Skating,Wheelchair Accessible,Walking,Cross Country Skiing

Parking & Trail Access

The Burnt Bridge Creek Trail runs between NW Lakeshore Ave. (Vancouver), where parking is available, and Meadowbrook Marsh Park (Vancouver).

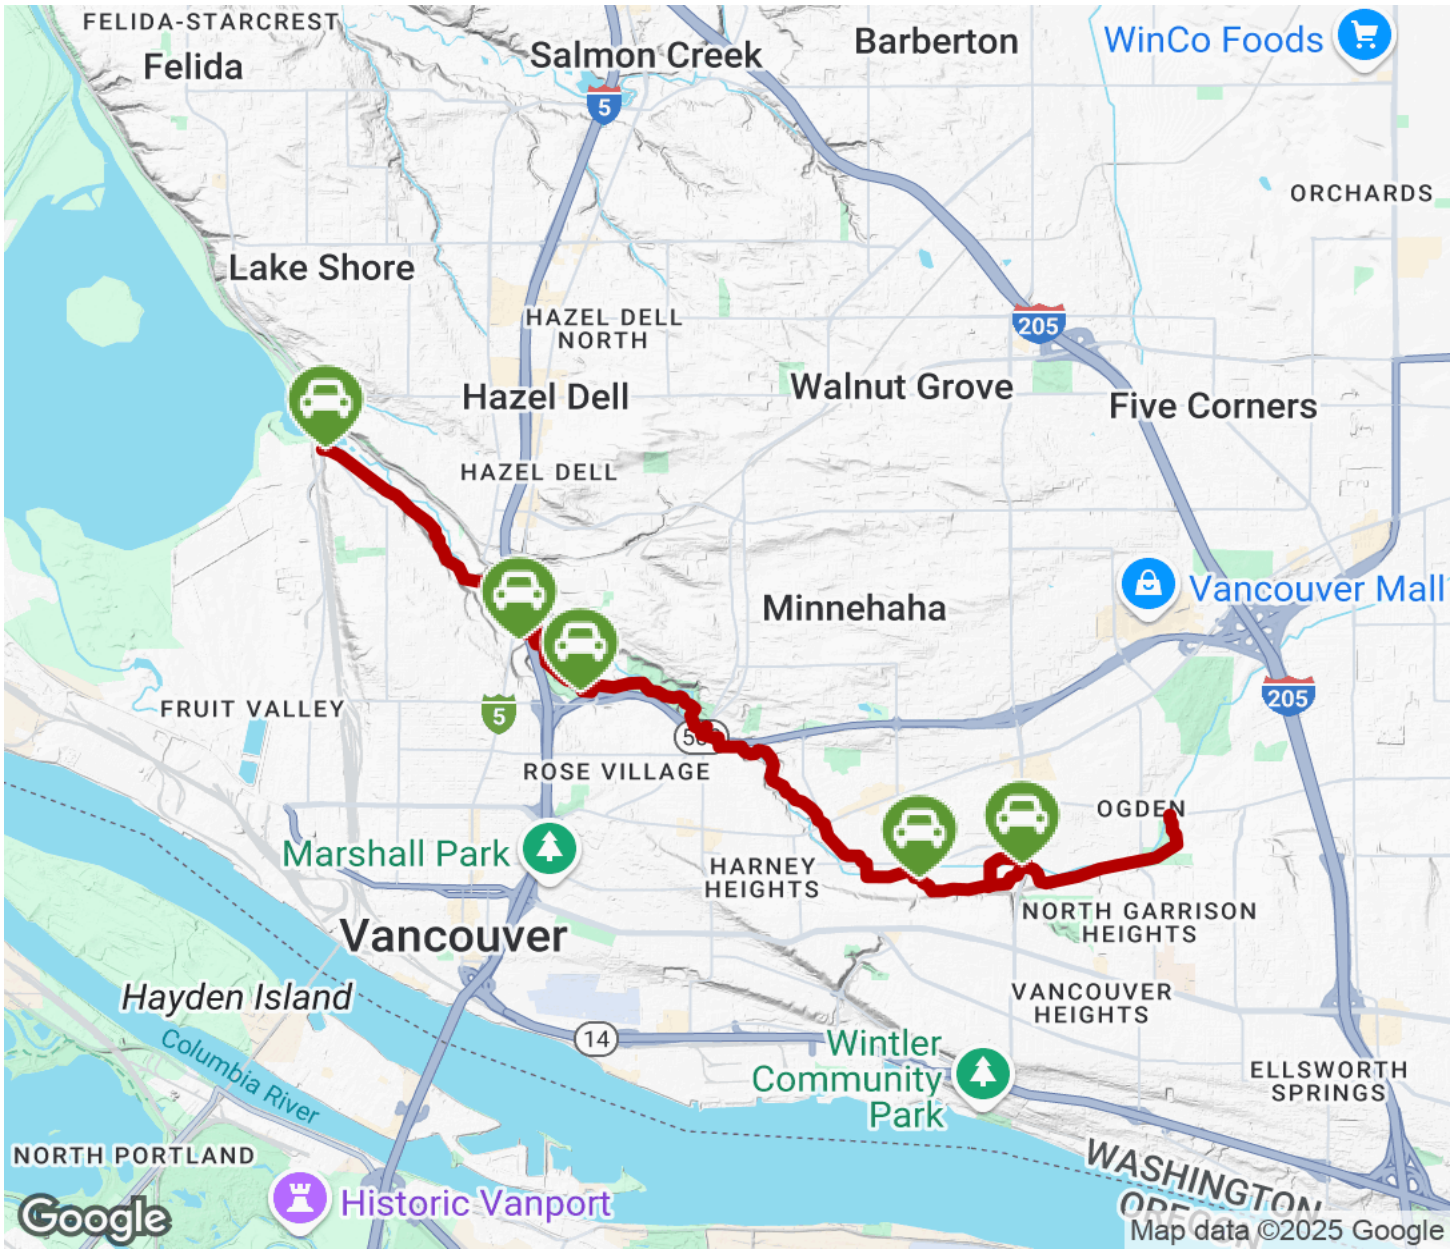
Parking is also available at:

- 4209 NE Leverich Park Way (Vancouver)

Please see TrailLink Map for detailed directions.

Burnt Bridge Creek Trail

Washington



Trailhead Restroom Parking Water Fountain Tunnel