The Red River Bicycle Trail provides a convenient route through the heart of Shreveport along the Clyde Fant Memorial Parkway. Along the way, the trail offers spectacular views of the river and the city skyline. The path begins at RiverView Park, which features gardens, a sprayground and 35-foot-tall lighted rose sculptures. Midway, the trail passes through Veterans & Freedom Park before ending at the Charles and Marie Hamel Memorial Park, a 17-acre open space offering a picnic area and boat launch.
