The Sunset Greenway Trail begins near Sunset Park, on the banks of the Missouri River, and travels along a roadway through open

The Sunset Greenway Trail begins near Sunset Park, on the banks of the Missouri River, and travels along a roadway through open space to beyond St. Ferdinand Park in Old Town Florissant. The village of Florissant was established in 1786 by the Spanish and is one of the oldest settlements in the state of Missouri. Learn about the town's history at the Old St. Ferdinand Shrine and Spanish Land Grant Park, both located along the southeastern end of the trail.
