The 146th Street Trail is a linear pathway that follows its namesake roadway across Westfield, which lies on the northern outskirts of Indianapolis. At Rohrer Road, the pathway connects to the Monon Trail, an 18-mile member of the Rail-Trail Hall of Fame that travels south into the heart of Indianapolis.

Farther east, the trail offers access to two popular shopping and dining areas: Clay Terrace and Cool Creek Commons. The views along the trail are primarily residential and commercial, but it also provides access to Carey Grove Park, which features a community garden, picnic spots, playgrounds, a half-size basketball court and a softball diamond.

Note that the pathway is not yet fully developed and there
