Robbins Vista View Trail

Florida

Robbins Vista View Trail offers 9 miles of paved pathway through the Imagination Farms community of Davie. Much of the route

On the route's east side is Flamingo Gardens. In addition to its wide array of beautiful plants and trees, the park also features a wildlife sanctuary. Continue east and you'll reach Robbins Lodge and Preserve, which has an equestrian facility and horse trails.

Running parallel to the route's section along Orange Drive on the opposite side of the street, the Linear Park Trail follows the South New River Canal.

Refer to the TrailLink map to follow the route through the Town of Davie.

Robbins Vista View Trail offers 9 miles of paved pathway through the Imagination Farms community of Davie. Much of the route follows the town's canals and horses can be taken along some sections (check the town's website for details).

On the route's western end is Vista View Park. What was once a landfill and superfund site is now a popular recreational amenity. From the park's hilltops, you can see Fort Lauderdale to the east and the Everglades to the west. Picnic shelters, playgrounds, basketball courts, and an equestrian corral are available.

Midway along the route is Long Key Natural Area, an ecological preserve run by Broward County. Use the parks' trail system to explore its scenic woodlands and wetlands.
