Lackman Road Path begins across from Swarner Park, where you'll find a number of recreational amenities, including sports fields, a playground, fishing pond, and skate park. From there, you head south through Shawnee, a suburb of Kansas City. Much of the trail's southern end is residential, but just past busy Shawnee Mission Parkway you'll come to a large shopping area.

On the south side of Midland Drive, you can connect to two other short trails: Midland Drive Path (heading west) and Blackfish Parkway Trail (heading east).
