The Pine Lake Trail runs through a heavily wooded state park of the same name, which is especially known for its 250-year-old white pine trees. The trail begins at Deer Park, a half mile east of downtown Eldora in central Iowa, before heading north into Pine Lake State Park. At times, the trail closely follows the shoreline of the park's twin lakes and traverses hilly terrain. In the park, fishing, swimming, picnicking, camping and hiking opportunities are available. Shortly after exiting the park, it ends at County Road S56.
