

2025

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Browns Run Trail

Pennsylvania

Browns Run Trail

Pennsylvania

Nearly two miles of the proposed 12-mile Browns Run Trail is currently open near Masontown in German Township, Fayette

Nearly two miles of the proposed 12-mile Browns Run Trail is currently open near Masontown in German Township, Fayette County. The trail follows the former Monongahela and B&O lines from Lardin House, a local restaurant housed in an 18th-century historic property, to the Monongahela River near Ronco.

Currently, the developed section is a 1.9-mile crushed stone path that features a small playground with a pavilion.

Please note: Route 21 is a divided highway, and the trail can only be accessed from the southbound side of the highway.

Browns Run Trail

Pennsylvania

States: Pennsylvania

Counties: Fayette

Length: 1.9miles

Trail end points: State Route 21
(McClellandtown Road) to Ferry Road

Trail surfaces: Crushed Stone

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Bike, Fishing, Wheelchair
Accessible, Mountain Biking, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

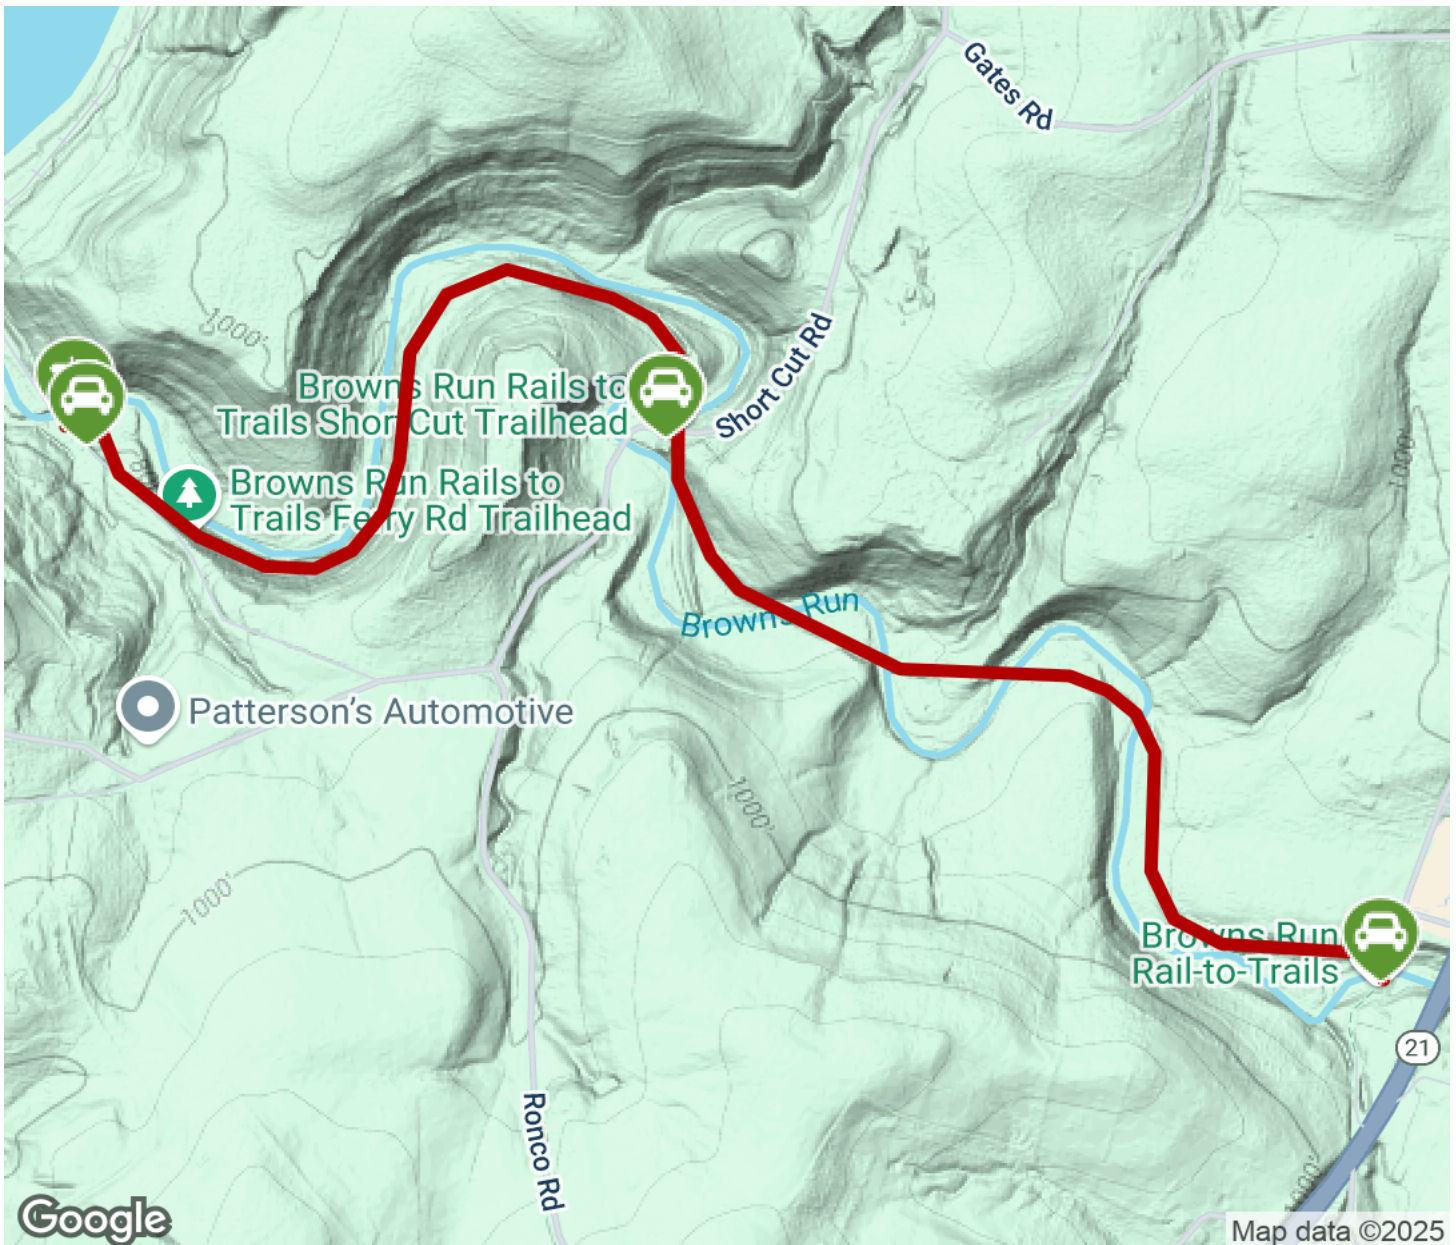

Parking is available along State Route 21 (also known as McClellandtown Road). There is additional parking on Short Cut Road.

See TrailLink Map for more detailed directions.

Browns Run Trail

Pennsylvania

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com