Lykens Valley Rail Trail

Pennsylvania

Lykens Valley Rail Trail is approximately half-way complete with 9 miles of trail open out of 20 miles planned. Those 9 miles are Lykens) during its hours of operation. The Lykens Valley Rail Trail connects right behind the library.

In Millersburg, restrooms and water are available at the north end of Riverfront Park, which is near the intersection of River St & Moore St.

Unfortunately as of January 2019, the last remaining volunteer has resigned. The trail is still worth visiting, but it is unlikely that the remaining segments will ever be fully completed.

Lykens Valley Rail Trail is approximately half-way complete with 9 miles of trail open out of 20 miles planned. Those 9 miles are available in three disconnected segments. In Millersburg, a 0.4-mile segment of trail runs north-south between the Susquehanna River and River Street, while another section of about 3 miles traces the southern side of Wiconisco Creek.

Farther east, the longest contiguous section of the trail runs for nearly 6 miles through Lykens and Wiconisco to Williamstown. This section of the trail meanders through state game lands and a pleasant wooded corridor.

In Lykens, restrooms and water fountains are available at the Northern Dauphin Library (683 Main Street,
