Celebration Pass Hike and Bike Trail travels through northeast Allen, a suburb of Dallas, connecting residents to two parks and the city's on-street bike route. The trail runs along the Allen and Lovejoy Independent School District boundaries, providing a safe route to five schools within the two school districts.

At the trail's southern end, the 100-acre Celebration Park offers Kid Mania (one of the largest community-built playgrounds in Texas), baseball and soccer fields, tennis courts, and other recreational amenities. The much smaller Stacy Ridge Park, on the trail's northern end, offers picnic tables, a playground, and basketball courts.
