About the Route

The Eureka Trail leaves in the east from the city of Athens, about midway between Chattanooga and Knoxville (about an hour's drive from either). Gardens, benches, and other amenities can be found nearby in Prof Powers Park, named for a longtime Athens resident and elementary school principal. For a sweet addition to your time on the trail, stop by a popular local ice cream eatery in Athens.

Following a former railroad bed, the gravel trail winds for 6 miles southeast through woodlands, rural landscapes,
