About an hour northwest of Chicago, the beautiful Grant Woods Forest Preserve spans more than 1,000 acres, offering an outdoor respite of prairie, woodlands and marshes. The crushed limestone pathway runs north-south through the park, providing an opportunity to experience these landscapes by bike, foot or ski. At the southern end of the trail, cross W. Rollins Road to venture onto the Chain O' Lakes Bike Path, a 3-mile rail-trail heading west to Fox Lake.
