The Chippewa Trail offers a paved 4-mile route from Midland to the Chippewa Nature Center, part of a beautiful 1,200-acre preserve, where there is a wildlife viewing area, river overlook and nature-themed programming for kids.

From the unique Tridge bridge at the confluence of the Tittabawassee and Chippewa Rivers, the trail heads southwest through both open and wooded areas. In St. Charles Park, there are many recreational amenities, such as playgrounds, a skate park, swimming pool, roller rink, baseball field and picnic areas. Continuing along, interpretive signs bring attention to historical, cultural and natural points of interest.
