COCC Shevlin Park Trail parallels Shevlin Park Road on a northwest course for nearly 2 miles. It brings trail-goers from northern Bend to Shevlin Park, which offers more than 600 acres of largely undeveloped forest land. The regional park offers scenic trails and well-loved fishing spots. Along the way, you'll also pass Three Pines Park, which has a railroad-themed playground in honor of the trains that used to haul lumber through this region.
