The Liberty Lake Trail offers a paved north-south route through a suburb of Spokane. At its northern end, it connects to the famed Spokane River Centennial Trail, which stretches 37 miles through downtown Spokane and reaches the Idaho border. From that trail juncture, the Liberty Lake Trail heads south, paralleling N. Harvard Road. A grassy median separates the trail from the road and a few trees dot the path.

After a half-mile, the trail reaches Appleway Avenue. If you head east following the sidewalk along Appleway, you'll reach the Liberty Lake Stateline Trail after 1.5 miles. If instead you head south, you'll continue on the Liberty Lake Trail, which now parallels Liberty Lake Road. The trail crosses over busy I-90 on a pedestrian bridge, traverses the Trailhead Golf Course, and ends about a
