

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Rotary
Centennial Trail
Maine

Rotary Centennial Trail

Maine

The Rotary Centennial Trail crosses two towns—Benton and Winslow—in central Maine, about 50 miles southwest of Bangor.

developing trail network stretching from Maine to Florida.

The Rotary Centennial Trail crosses two towns—Benton and Winslow—in central Maine, about 50 miles southwest of Bangor. The scenic wooded trail follows a former rail bed along the eastern shore of the Kennebec River. At its southern end, a rail bridge abutment offers beautiful views of the river.

In the future, trail-goers will be able to continue farther south along the proposed East Kennebec Trail, which will head into downtown Winslow.

Supported by the Waterville Rotary Club, the trail was completed in 2005 and named for the centennial anniversary of Rotary International. Although the trail is short, it's part of the larger Kennebec Messalonskee Trails system, as well as the East Coast Greenway, a

Rotary Centennial Trail

Maine

States: Maine

Counties: Kennebec

Length: 1.5miles

Trail end points: Crummett Street (Benton) to Kennebec River, just west of Dixon Terrace
(Winslow)

Trail surfaces: Crushed Stone, Dirt, Grass

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Bike, Walking, Cross Country
Skiing

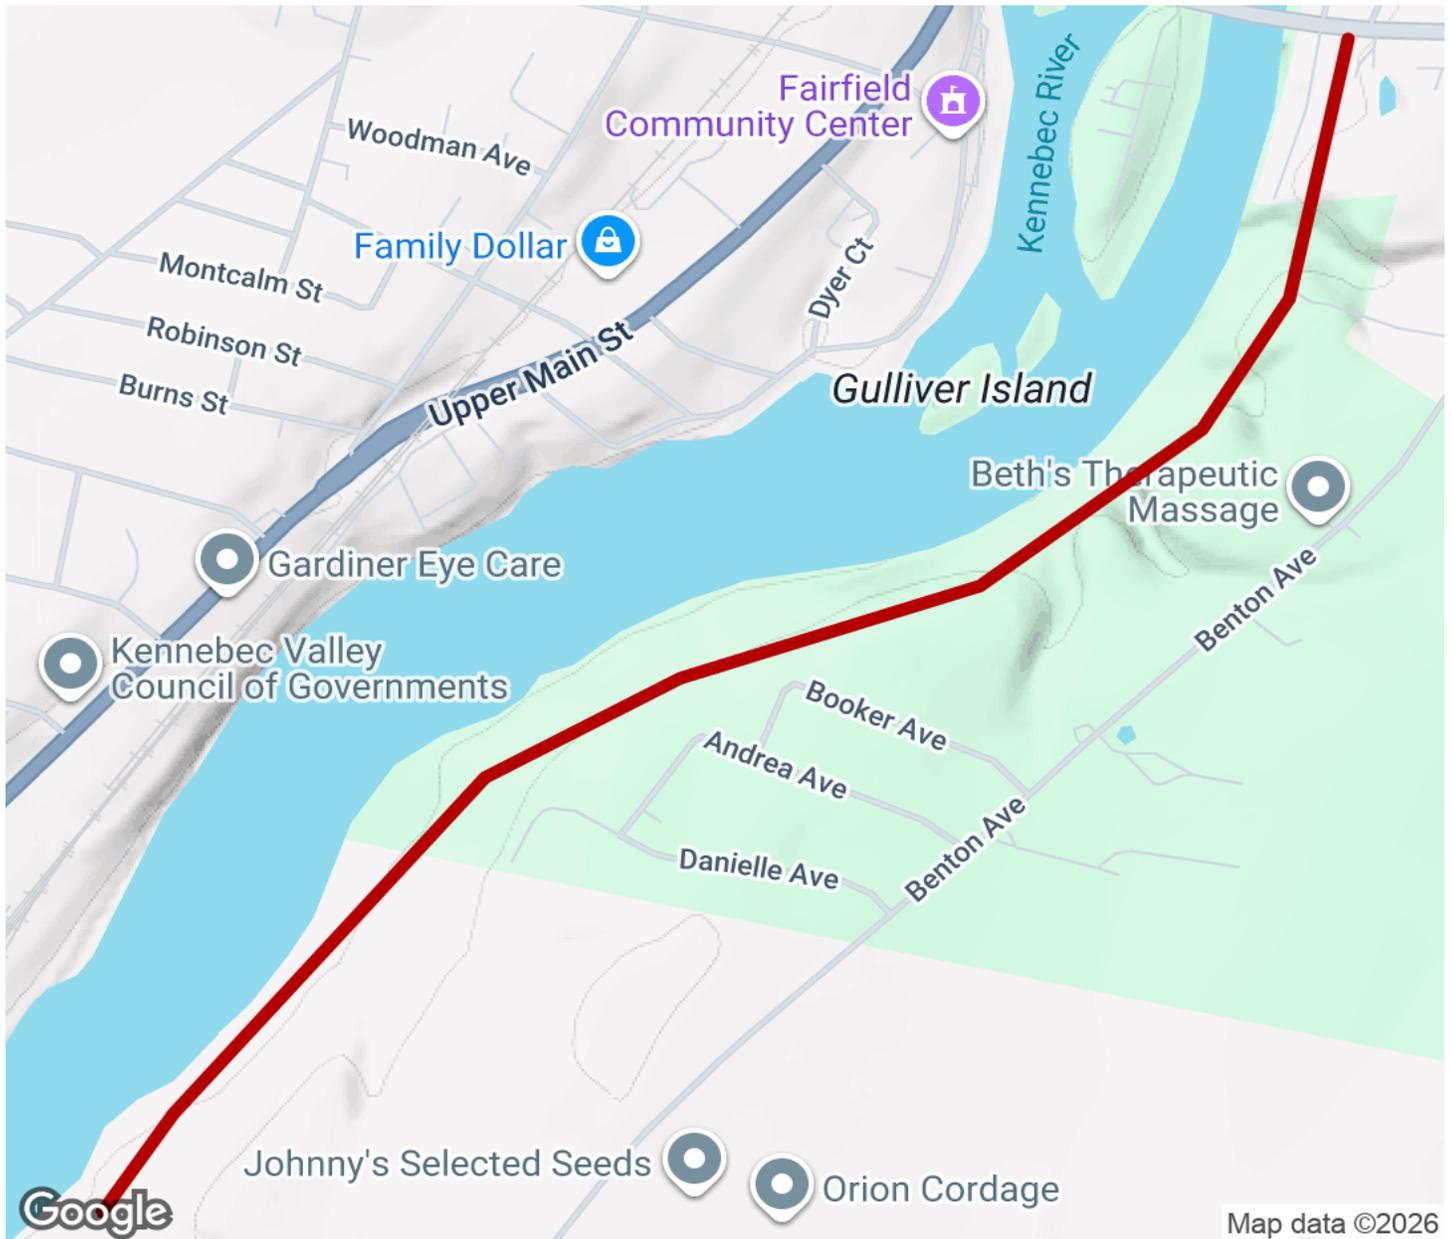

Parking & Trail Access

Parking is available at the north end of the trail, just west of Benton Avenue, 300 yards south of ME Route 139/100/11. From Benton Avenue, turn west on the driveway through Asher Farms mobile home park to reach the trailhead kiosk and parking area.

Rotary Centennial Trail

Maine

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com