Medbery Bike Trail

Michigan

The Medbery Bike Trail runs from a junction with the Hart-Montague Trail State Park and White Lake Pathway in Montague,

The Medbery Bike Trail runs from a junction with the Hart-Montague Trail State Park and White Lake Pathway in Montague, Michigan, to an industrial park west of town. The rail-trail passes primarily through a woodland landscape, but trail users may be able to catch a glimpse of White Lake and the City of Whitehall across the water from the trail's northern end.

The trail's name is optimistic, as future plans call for its extension all the way to scenic Medbery Park on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan.
