Novato Boulevard Path

California

The Novato Boulevard Path is a multi-use trail that can be used recreationally, but is more useful as a commuting route.

The Novato Boulevard Path is a multi-use trail that can be used recreationally, but is more useful as a commuting route. Closely following its namesake road, the path is completely separated from the busy thoroughfare to provide safe travel. Along its short route, the trail offers access to hundreds of homes and a handful of businesses.

At its eastern end, continue seamlessly onto the newer Enfrente Road Connector to travel safely alongside US 101 towards the southern reaches of Novato.
