spans 275 acres and provides a variety of recreational amenities. From the park, the trail heads north a little crossing Shallowford Road, just east of the Chattanooga Airport.

As the trail continues it goes under an active railroad, crosses Bonny Oaks Drive, and reaches N. Hawthorne Street. A highlight occurs near Sterchi Farm. In this area, trail users can also find elevated boardwalks over wetlands with steep inclines along the creek. There's also a canoe and kayak launch here.

Connections

The northern end of the South Chickamauga Creek Greenway meets the Chattanooga Riverwalk (a.k.a the Tennessee Riverwalk).

Closure Notice: Where the South Chickamunga Creek Greenway crosses US-75 near the southern end of its route, it will be closed until July 2027 for maintenance work. This will affect access to Camp Jordan Park.

The South Chickamauga Creek Greenway offers 13.7 miles of trail alongside the wooded Chickamauga Creek through eastern Chattanooga and the community of East Ridge. The path winds through a mix of landscapes, including parks, commercial areas, and residential neighborhoods.

About the Route

The southern part of the trail has a gravel and asphalt surface and is anchored by Camp Jordan Park, which
