Round Hill Bike Path

Nevada

The Round Hill Bike Path is a link between the communities of Round Hill Village and Kingsbury on the east shore of Lake Tahoe.

The Round Hill Bike Path is a link between the communities of Round Hill Village and Kingsbury on the east shore of Lake Tahoe. The trail winds through pine forest on a ridge above US 50. The northern half of the trail from Elks Point Road to Echo Drive is paved. From Echo Drive to Pine Ridge Drive, the trail has a natural dirt surface, and trail users will encounter a primitive crossing of Burke Creek.
