The Van Buren Trail Spur, which opened in November 2015, offers a paved, off-road route from the southern outskirts of South Haven

The Van Buren Trail Spur, which opened in November 2015, offers a paved, off-road route from the southern outskirts of South Haven to Van Buren State Park. The rail-trail begins at 16th Avenue, where it meets the 14-mile unpaved Van Buren Trail State Park. You can take that trail north into downtown South Haven, or follow the pavement southwest for 2.5 miles to the state park. The 400-acre Van Buren State Park offers a beach on the Lake Michigan shoreline, woodland trails, and a campground.
