The Williamsburg to Batavia Hike/Bike Trail connects its two namesake communities on a paved route that winds through East Fork Wildlife Area and along scenic William Harsha Lake. The experience is both off-road (utilizing abandoned roads) and shared-road (on Williamsburg-Bantam Road). Equestrians are permitted on the portion of the trail that follows Williamsburg-Bantam Road.

Plans are to extend it farther to the William H. Harsha Lake Dam for a total of 15 miles. As of 2015, about a third of the trail is complete.
