The Rountree Branch Trail begins where Chestnut Street in Platteville crosses the Rountree Branch stream and continues 2.7 miles to Keystone Parkway. The trail connects trails on the UW-Platteville campus to a trail that will continue to Belmont, Wisconsin. Construction of the segment connecting to Belmont is scheduled for 2016-2017. The Rountree Branch Trail parallels Business Highway 151 for much of its length allowing easy access to businesses along the corridor. It also provides an offroad connection to the Keystone Development retail center. Currently about half of the trail is paved. Some segments are gravel/limestone, but the trail will be fully paved and lighted by August 2016.
