Less than two miles in length, Furneaux Creek Orange Trail is a short paved paradise that proves everything doesn't have to be bigger in Texas. The Furneaux Creek Orange Trail's smooth concrete surface makes it ideal for biking, walking, and inline skating.

Nearby picnic tables and a lovely large open space provide the opportunity for a sunny picnic and the copious amounts of trees can provide a place to seek shade on those extremely hot Texas summer days.

The Furneaux Creek Orange Trail provides a pleasant journey with the potential to venture all the way to the Furneaux Creek Blue Trail. Combine both trails to extend your journey.
