The Oso Creek Trail offers just over four miles of paved pathway connecting Jeronimo Open Space Park and Oso Viejo Community

The Oso Creek Trail offers just over four miles of paved pathway connecting Jeronimo Open Space Park and Oso Viejo Community Park in the suburban southern California city of Mission Viejo.

Much of the trail is tree-lined with creek views and dotted with mosaic artwork and benches. Unique features also include a butterfly garden, hedge maze, and peace obelisk. In the community park, you'll find recreational amenities, such as a sprawling playground, baseball diamonds, and picnic tables.

The southern end of the trail (south of La Paz Road) also provides access to the shops that line Marguerite Parkway.
